

EXERCISES

Module 11 : How to look and find a job in sustainable tourism

Exercise 1 - Resume

For this activity, you will be asked to create a resume with CANVA with the help of the material given on the platform.

You can send your resume to us, if you want some feedback at the end of this internship.

contact : support@ifom.info

Exercise 2 - Creation of an attractive profile

In this activity, we will ask you to create a profile on LinkedIn that aims to be attractive to your future recruiters. For that, material is available on the platform to guide you through the whole process.

Exercise 3 - find your skills

In the first 10 minutes, list all the skills you have, you can get inspiration from the ones listed throughout the first activities.

Then, with your browser, find job offers and announcements about the sustainable tourism sector and find what skills are mostly required.

Identify those in common and those who are different ones between your and the one required in the offers. Try then to identify the most suitable offer

Exercise 4 - Build your network while getting used to look for jobs

Go on LinkedIn and take time to look at jobs announcements or companies in sustainable tourism field. Practice looking for them through relevant keywords or filters. Identify potential announcements fitting your skills previously listed. Start to make yourself a network by following companies on LinkedIn or other social media as well as online communities. Try to get in touch with people working in the field you aim and ask them your questions !
