Last newsletter

This fourth newsletter is closing the project.

In order to finish this project, this newsletter will be consecrated on our journey of sharing and developing the project.

All together, IFOM, DFOP, EBA, EUROPRODOS, NIDA and ECOSYSTEM worked on this project to be able to publish a complete and diverse CVET project.

Started in 2022, the project has come to its end.

What does G4T brings you ?

G4T brings new ways of studying with CVET.

For ways of work, G4T brings a new manual to learn Gamification and put it into practice. It also brings Micro-credentials for course modules.

G4T reaches more than 800 stakeholders which raise awareness in the field.

Also, being 6 partners in the project allows G4T to bring 6 new and unique points of view among the project.

G4T is overall a modern and new way of learning.

What is G4T?

G4T is the short term for Green Skills For Future Tourism.

The project has been created by 6 partners and aims to be 26 month long.

The main target of the project are groups of people that obtained a tourism qualification and never entered the job market or lost their jobs and NEETs.

G4T also has 4 main objectives such as : develop competencies in targeted fields with the creation of curriculums, increasing the quality and relevance of CVET training, Enhancing exchanges and cooperation between CVET providers and companies and organisations active in green tourism and lastly, deepening interest and motivation of potential CVET learners toward green jobs in tourism.

Our Multiplier Events

Our multiplier Events took place in the 6 countries of our partners. It was focusing on the presentation of G4T curriculum and training materials.

Over 300 attendees were here and allowed lively discussions about implementation of sustainable practices in tourism to take place.

Because of these, attendees were able to gain firsthand knowledge of the project.
